

Education Intern
Fall 2018
August 20th – December 7th
Application Deadline: July 30, 2018

108|Contemporary is a non-profit community arts organization that supports Oklahoma's contemporary fine craft artists by connecting them to audiences and opportunities through education, recognition, and exhibition programs. 108|Contemporary, in partnership with many local foundations, members, and individual funders, is a vibrant center for investigation and dialogue that helps expand the definition and exploration of craft. Through dynamic exhibitions and provocative public programming the organization advances the conversation of the role of craft and design in contemporary culture while at the same time honors the history of the craft movement and Oklahoma's Native American traditions.

108 Contemporary is seeking an intern to assist with our Craft Kit and Access 108 educational programs. The ideal candidate will have a thirst for learning, an appreciation for the arts and fine craft, and the ability to be creative and problem solve. The intern will work closely with staff and assist in the development and implementation of our educational programs. This position is unpaid.

What you will learn to:

- Create curriculum for each exhibition featured in the gallery using the Any Given Child Initiative.
- Give tours of the gallery to 6th grade students from Tulsa Public Schools
- Assist in workshops and other community based activities
- Basic operations within a non-profit gallery setting
- Create craft kits and online resources for children to access from their home

What we require:

- Interest in museum or art education
- Ability to be understanding and patient with children of all levels of interest and education
- Strong communication skills
- Strong organization skills
- Must be available to work openings on the first Friday of every month
- Must be available to work 5-10 hours a week
- Ideal candidate will be available to give Any Given Child Tours throughout the week.

Please submit a resume and cover letter explaining what you hope to get from the internship and how it will benefit your career goals. Visit our website for deadlines.
