FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE—

Tulsa, OK— 108|Contemporary is starting 2020 with two of the finest quilt artists, Susan R. Michael and Sarah Atlee. From scraps, thrift stores, and discarding clothing, Michael and Atlee forge quilts that are both beautiful and complicated in their design. Sarah Atlee takes joy in quilt working because of its history as a craft of survival and necessity. Susan R. Michael aims to challenge the viewer through the conformity and nonconformity of her stitch work. Each artist uses distinct color and pattern, enticing the viewer to come closer and explore.

“The interplay of small scraps of fabric with the larger pieces is my favorite design element. This brings intricate detail into the work, but also honors something that might be considered disposable” - Susan R. Michael

108|Contemporary is a non-profit community arts organization that supports Oklahoma’s contemporary fine craft artists by connecting them to audience and opportunities through education, recognition, and exhibition programs. We envision a community where world-class craft and design exhibition inspire and educate audiences of all ages.
